TRAINING CONTENT & CUSTOMIZATION

The DELMIAworks Education and Training Services team offers three types of training content:

Standard Content

Pre-defined, proven training content from our extensive standard course library

Configured Content

Custom configuration of courses to create a training curriculum specific to your needs, utilizing standard course materials. Prioritize and select topics that are most important to your team.

Custom Content

Curriculum designed and presented specifically for you and your company, utilizing your own data, work instructions and processes.

FLEXIBLE TRAINING PROGRAMS

Every person learns in a different manner with different learning preferences. DELMIAworks' Education Services offers blended training programs in multiple formats, designed for different learning needs and requirements to meet your needs.

Whether you are looking for live, virtual instructor-led training or self-paced eLearning, DELMIAworks provides the flexibility to train around your schedule and preferences.

By offering multiple different training formats, you can also create a blended approach for your learning plans. Simply combine multiple offerings to create a unique learning plan specific to your corporate needs.

VIRTUAL SELF-PACED TRAINING OPTIONS

The DELMIAworks eLearning library is the go-to training resource for ongoing user training, from general navigation and new release highlights to instructional videos on the full breadth of DELMIAworks system functionality. Course topics encompass all areas of system functionality including, but not limited to, accounting, production, scheduling, quality, human resources, and system administration.

The eLearning library offers short, modular training in 1 to 4-minute segments, covering 150+ courses spanning over 800 lessons. In addition, full length 1-2 hour deep dive webinar recordings are also available on numerous topics. From orienting employees on DELMIAworks features to deep dives into advanced functionality, the DELMIAworks eLearning solution allows you to build a learning path and track progress for you and your team to maximize retention.

VIRTUAL INSTRUCTOR-LED TRAINING OPTIONS

DELMIAworks offers live virtual training, delivering distance learning with lectures, hands-on demonstrations and training labs. With virtual training, you can minimize the amount of time out of the office, allowing time to be spent at your facility.

There are three types of virtual training options available:

Classes

Training content can be based on either standard, configured or customer content. Public or private classes are offered as multiple half-day sessions (four hours each day).

Workshops

Private two-hour sessions with an instructor to discuss specific areas of functionality, utilizing your own data with topics that you select.

Webinars

Content created by DELMIAworks and delivered as public webinars. May be offered as individual topics or a series of related topics. Topics change weekly.
